

Medix Medical Monitor Survey Uncovers

Singapore's Health Concerns & Perceptions

From diagnosis to treatment, here's what the numbers say

 ONLY 42%
believe they are quite healthy to very healthy

 83%
are worried about being diagnosed with cancer

 ONLY 20%
consider undergoing a biopsy to define the cancer as the most important step before treatment

 ONLY 1 in 4
undertake cancer related diagnosis tests

 ONLY 58%
believe their GP is providing them with sufficient information about preventative measures for diseases

 42%
combine Traditional Chinese Medicine with Western Medicine when dealing with cancer

 92%
would be likely to use new & advanced technologies that enable targeted and personalised cancer care

 78%
would like to use Personal Medical Case Management

Find out more at www.medix-global.com

medix
It's a matter of life